Bemvindo a Orrville!
Brazilian Guests Get Warm Rotary Welcome

What type of person would leave a perfectly pleasant climate, their family, friends, and careers and travel 5000 miles to Ohio- during our famously unpredictable spring- to spend a month with people they didn't previously know? Orrville Rotarians found the answer this April, and it was all good. For the third time in recent years, the Orrville Rotary Club was chosen to serve as a hub club for Rotary's Group Study Exchange Program as it welcomed this year's visiting team from Rotary District 4620 in Brazil. Local Rotarians hosted the 5 team members in their homes and organized a 4-day leg of their visit, coordinating activities with neighboring Rotary clubs in Wooster and Millersburg. Ask any Orrville Rotarian who met this vivacious group, and they would attest that the our rising April temperatures might well have been helped along by the warmth and energy of these way-out-of-town guests. Team leader Sandra de Campos led a fun-loving team consisting of teacher Claudia Calamita, administrative assistant Milena de Moura, dental surgeon Luis Neto, and systems analyst/ international student recruiter Renato de Siqueira.

Group Study Exchange is a program sponsored by Rotary International which sponsors a monthlong cultural immersion exchange between young professionals in different Rotary districts. (An outbound team from Ohio paid a reciprocal visit to Brazil during the same time period.) Teams consist of a Rotarian team leader and four non-Rotarian team members, generally between the ages of 25 and 40. They spend approximately 4 weeks at their destination- time to really get under the skin of an area and learn about customs, infrastructure, and local details of their specific fields of interest.

Orrville's Brazilian guests were treated to a tour of the Schantz Organ Company, a souvenir stop at Simply Smuckers, a tour of Stan Hywet Hall in Akron, and a visit to Orrville's newly-minted Middle School. Wooster Rotary hosted the team for a day, during which they made a presentation on Brazil open to all area Rotarians and guests; and Millersburg Rotary escorted the group through a Saturday in Amish Country. Amelia Laing, who serves as Orrville Rotary's Interantional Chairperson, coordinated the hub club responsibilities, assisted by club members Colby Chamberlain, Rod Steiger, Tony Rohrer, Craig Stauffer, and Jack Runion.

Despite the best efforts of local Rotarians, the pace of any Group Study Exchange visit is hectic and a bit exhausting- none of which showed much among the smiles and laughter that spread through this brief visit. The group scored some overdue down-time during a picnic with other Orrville Rotarians and host families at Wolf Creek Winery in Norton before moving on to the next hub club and the final leg of their Ohio visit.

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR
2007-2008

Making volunteering fun was the central theme of those describing Orrville Rotary's 2008 Citizen of the Year. The award was presented to Amy Hostetler at the club's April 15th meeting for her commitment to Service Above Self. Adding to the fun was the surprise - Amy thought she was in attendance for her mother to receive an award.

Amy was described as "a self-deprecating, lifelong Orrville resident who loves the Orrville community and feels obligated and privileged to give back."

Part of this giving back has included participation in school activities such as serving as a room mother, helping on prom committees, preparing breakfast for proficiency week, member of PTO, President of Mothers Study Club, and teaching Junior Achievement. She has also participated in many community activities including serving on Friendship Meals Board, cooking and serving meals at Friendship meals, serving on United Way's citizen review committee and helping with the annual campaign, volunteering at Salvation Army, volunteering at People to People Ministries, and delivering meals in Orrville for Meals on Wheels. Hostetler has been involved with Orrville Area Relay for Life in various capacities since its inception. She has captained a team in memory of Orrville teacher, Jackie Orr.

Amy and her husband Ned are raising their six children, Rachel, Becca, Roz, Zane, Zoe, and Alexa to appreciate the worthiness, respect, and commitment to the Orrville community that they call home.

Congratulations Amy!
