founder and organizer of the first Rotary club in Chicago in 1905, the man selected to be the first club president was one of the other founding members, Silvester Schiele.

By 1910, there were 16 Rotary clubs, which formed an organization called the National Association of Rotary Clubs. Two years later, the name was changed to the International Association of Rotary Clubs to reflect the addition of clubs in Canada, England, Ireland and Scotland. In 1922, the name was shortened to Rotary International.

When the first organization of Rotary clubs were created in 1910, Paul Harris was selected as the first president. He served in this position for two years, from 1910 until 1912. Thus, the founder of the Rotary idea, who declined to be president of the first club, became the first president of the worldwide organization, Rotary International.

QUOTABLE QUOTES:

- Hope is like a road in the country; there wasn't ever a road, but when many people walk on it, the road comes into existence.
- A man who dares to waste one hour of his time has not discovered the value of life.
- All life is an experiment. The more experiments you make the better.
- All the art of living lies in a fine mingling of letting go and holding on.
